"August Flower"

The Hon. J. W. Fennimore is the Sheriff of Kent Co., Del., and lives at Dover, the County Seat and Capital of the State. The sheriff is a gentleman fifty-nine years of age, and this is what he says: "I have used your August Flower for several years in my family and for my own use, and found it does me more good than any other remedy. I have been troubled with what I call Sick Headache. A pain comes in the back part of my head first, and then soon a general headache until I become sick and vomit. At times, too, I have a fullness after eating, a pressure after eating at the pit of the stomach, and sourness, when food seemed to rise up in my throat and mouth. When I feel this coming on if I take a little August Flower it relieves me, and is the best remedy I have ever taken for it. For this reason I take it and recommend it to others as a great remedy for Dyspepsia, &c."

Proper Way to Carry Yourself.

I consider throwing back the shoulders a pernicious practice and detrimental to proper physical development; besides it indirectly intensifies the first physical error, as the pressure of the shoulders on the spine forces the lumbar curve (the hollow of the back) to become more pronounced, adding another serious defect of position; as by this practice the abdomen is forced out more prominently to the front, and the muscles surrounding it are in consequence weakened through their being constantly stretched and distended.

The better way is to first draw the head back, keeping the face at right angles to the floor, until the back of the head is a little over the spine. Let the shoulders alone; they will find their proper position if the arms are allowed to hang relaxed and a correct position of the body is assumed. Turn the pelvis backward and upward; this will remove the curve in the lumbar region. This is a much more simple way than throwing the shoulders back, and of more benefit, as it immediately raises up the chest and gives a nobler carriage.—Edwin Checkley in Lippincott's.

When Is It Justifiable to Kill a Burglar?

The question is often asked, When is it justifiable to kill a burglar? A forcible or felonious attempt to violate a man's rights to his house or goods may be resisted with any necessary amount of violence, even to the extent of killing, but not where the felony is without violence. But you cannot anticipate killing—you cannot kill him in cold blood because you think he will kill you. If after ordering a man to leave your house he remains there, and so terrifies you that, for fear of your life, you shoot him, the law will not be very particular in deciding whether you were or were not within your right in shooting him, for "omnia presumuntur contra spoliatores."

It is possible to justify the killing of a burglar who has forcibly broken into, or is breaking into, our house on the ground that thereby our life was endangered, but if he has already retreated and has escaped from us, we are not, in the quaint language of an old writer, justified in shooting him as he fleeth down the avenue.—Gentleman's Magazine.

The Way an Artist Reasons.

Here is a characteristic story about the great Parisian man milliner: A lady of high position once ventured to remonstrate with the great man because he had charged her $120 for a ball dress.

"The material," she said, "could be bought for twenty pounds, and surely the work of making up would be well paid with five pounds more."

"Madam," replied the milliner, in his loftiest manner, "go to M. Meissonier, the painter, and say to him, 'Here is a canvas, value a shilling, and here are colors, value four shillings. Paint me a picture with these colors on that canvas and I will pay you one and threepence.' What will he say? He will say, 'Madam, that is no payment for an artist.' I say more. I say, if you think any terms too high, pay me nothing and keep the robe. Art does not descend to the pettiness of the higgler."—London Tit-Bits.

DOUBLE-BARRELED TARIFF REASONING.

The New York Press, a radical, unreasonable McKinley gold-bug paper, says the McKinley bill has saved the people of the United States $55,000,000 in the nine months it has been in existence. "Free sugar," it says, "accounts for about one-half of this reduction and the benefit of this is felt on every table in the land. The other half is accounted for by the fact that laces, hats, cutlery, woolen cloth, dress goods, etc., to the amount of many millions, are no longer bought from European manufacturers, but are purchased from Americans."

This double-barreled free trade and protection argument is copied without comment in the editorial columns of the Virginia Enterprise. It attempts to convince people, through their stomachs, that free trade is beneficial, and, by their backs, that protection is just what they need. As it would not do to assert in one sentence, as our esteemed contemporary, the Gazette, did a few days ago, that the tariff is not a tax, and, in the next sentence, claim credit for abolishing the tax on sugar, the Press draws the line anatomically, as it were, through the American citizen, and attempts to convince him, through his stomach, that free trade saves him money, and, through his back that protection is enriching him.

The Press, like many other writers on the tariff, forgets that the average American citizen has a head, and that, as a general rule, there are brains in the head. By reasoning with the brains and the head instead of the stomach and back of the American citizen, the Press might be able to convince him that free trade or protection, one or the other, might benefit him and save him money, but it cannot hope to satisfy him that both are good for him and the country. Free trade, which it says saves the people money, will not put a dollar in the National Treasury to meet the appropriations of the Billion Dollar Congress; neither will protection, if, as the Press says, it excludes all articles of foreign manufacture. As the Government must have money, and hundreds of millions of it, to pay office holders' salaries and other expenses, and none can be derived from the Custom Houses, it is evident that neither free trade nor a prohibitory tariff will do, and that the honest old policy of a tariff for revenue sufficient to pay the expenses of the Government honestly administered is what is required. Such a tariff would amount to about $300,000,000 a year, and, if properly adjusted, would afford ample encouragement to every industry that requires or deserves it.

GOVERNMENT BONDS.

There are $50,000,000 of four and a half per cent. Government bonds which will mature September 1st. The Secretary of the Treasury desires to extend the bonds at two per cent. interest, and has had new bonds prepared for that purpose. The National Banks hold about one-half of these bonds, and it was expected that they would apply for an extension, as the bonds are security for the notes which they issue. So far, however, the application for the extension of the bonds from banks and private holders do not exceed $20,000,000, which would leave about $30,000,000 to be redeemed. Though the amount may be reduced to $25,000,000 by September 1st, it would require the calling in at once of a large amount of Treasury funds now on deposit in the banks. Commenting on the situation, the New York Voice, a non-partisan paper, so far as Democracy and Republicanism are concerned, says:

There is no good reason why those funds should not be in the possession of the banks, now that the surplus has vanished, and yet it is freely predicted that rather than call them in the Secretary will withdraw his call for the bonds and continue to pay four and a half per cent. interest on them. That is to say, rather than pay the Nation's matured debt, he will continue the loan at four and a half per cent. interest in order not to deprive the banks of the use of the public moneys. To state the case is to show the incongruity of it. And it is this very thing of placing funds of the Government in the possession of the banks in Cleveland's administration that called out resounding campaign thunder from Mr. Blaine in 1888. Yet Cleveland's Secretary had the accumulated surplus as an excuse. What excuse has Mr. Foster now, or what can he have if he follows out the course predicted? He can have no excuse that is not at the same time a condemnation of our present financial system."

BY TELEGRAPH!

News of Importance From Home and Abroad.

Meeting of the American Bar Association Special to the Journal.

Boston, August 26.—The fourteenth annual meeting of the American Bar Association opened this forenoon. Nearly two hundred members were present. After President Baldwin had called the assemblage to order a welcome was extended to visitors by Hon. John Lowell, President of the Boston Bar Association. President Baldwin responded, stating that the Association was pleased with the warmth of the reception accorded it. After a few brief remarks he proceeded to deliver the annual address.

At the afternoon session an interesting address was delivered by Frederick M. Jodson of St. Louis on "Individual Liberty of Contract Under Police Power," and by W. B. Hornblower of New York on the "Legal Status of Indians." Hornblower, after speaking of the complexity of the jurisprudence of the United States, referred to the recent decision of the United States Court in South Dakota that the killing of a United States army officer by an Indian was not murder because a state of war existed between the United States and the tribe to which the Indian belonged. The right of Congress to regulate the legal status of the Indian having been fully announced by the court of last resort, it would seem eminently proper that Congress pass an act subjecting all Indians within the jurisdiction of the State or Territory to the criminal laws of those States or Territories. All Indians within any reservation to the criminal laws of the United States, and declaring that they shall not hereafter be recognized as in any respect independent. However great the wrongs of the Indian and however real his grievances, it is perfectly clear they cannot be righted by casual insurrection. Certainly, for the Indian to be told that he may rise against the United States Government and kill its officers and soldiers and be exempt from all punishment because he is a member of a quasi independent nation waging war against the United States, is to encourage and not to deter him from future hostilities. Indian nations have become wretched remnants, hanging on the outskirts of civilization or being on reservations and surrounded by civilized communities, and dependent wholly or part on the Government. Let fiction be abolished; let us enact laws suitable for the present situation and place the legal status of the Indian upon a rational and practical basis.

Kansas Republicans.

Special to the Journal.
TOPEKA, Kan., August 26.—The Republican League of Kansas met in this city today. Four hundred delegates were called to order at 11 o'clock. Committees on credentials and resolutions were appointed. After a number of enthusiastic speeches the convention adjourned until 2 p. m., at which time committees are to report.

The Knights of Reciprocity held a short session before the League Convention assembled and made arrangements for their recognition by the League. The two organizations will work in harmony.
At the afternoon session the convention decided to receive delegates from the Lodges of Knights of Reciprocity. The reports of the Committee on Resolutions compliments President Harrison's administration and condemns the People's Party and the sub-treasury plan and favors the free coinage of the American product of silver. No reference is made to prohibition.

The New York Disaster.

Special to the Journal.
New York, August 26.—The work of looking for dead bodies in the Taylor building was continued all night. From last night until 7:30 this morning ten bodies were recovered, making a total of sixty.

Up to 2 o'clock two more bodies were found. It is impossible to identify many of the victims, as decomposition has already set in.
At 1:30 this afternoon work was stopped and the announcement was made that no more bodies were in the ruins. The police give the number of dead taken out as 61 in all. Of these thirty-three have been identified.

A committee has been appointed by Major Grant to raise money for the families of the dead. One of the first subscribers to the relief fund was Mrs. Crane, the owner of the collapsed building, who gave $1,000.
All work was stopped at 5 p. m. Numbers of persons whose friends and relatives are missing still hover near the scene of the disaster. As there is so large a number missing and not accounted for, it is thought that several bodies must have been consumed by fire.

St. Louis, August 26.—The latest advances from the Chickasaw nation state that Governor Boyd is notifying white settlers that when their permits to reside in that country expire no more will be issued.

A Steamer Burned.

Special to the Journal.
LONDON, August 26.—The Norwegian collier Frey was burned to the water's edge to-day and eight of her crew were drowned.

A Heavy Gale.

Special to the Journal.
LONDON, August 26.—Last night a steam pinnace belonging to a British war vessel at Portsmouth was swamped in the gale and four seamen drowned. The gale on shore swept down telegraph and telephone wires and poles, uprooted trees and unroofed houses. Dispatches from various parts of the coast announce numerous wrecks. Reports from all parts of Ireland indicate that crops were badly damaged by gales.

It now transpires that four seamen supposed to have been drowned by the capsizing of the pinnace, were rescued by a boat from another war vessel. It is feared that there has been much more damage done than has been so far reported, and there may have been considerable loss of life off the coast. Telegraph wires are down in many sections where wrecks are likely to occur and no definite information has been received. A large number of yachts in the Clyde are known to have been driven ashore.

The Insurgents in Close Quarters.

Special to the Journal.
WASHINGTON, August 26.—Valparaiso dispatches dated 24th state that the insurgents succeeded in landing 10,000 troops at Quinters Bay, North Valparaiso, and that under the protection of warships these troops started for Valparaiso. The government forces of 5,000 delayed their crossing the Aconcagua river until a sufficient number of troops arrived to protect the city. The insurgents lost 3,000 of their best men. The rebel fleet has been kept at bay by fire from Fort Andres so that the land forces have been deprived of the expected aid from the fleet while the government forces are constantly receiving recruits from the interior. In addition to all this the rebels have no possible way of retreat.

War Material for Balmaceda.

Special to the Journal.
BERLIN, August 26.—The National Gazette states that an English steamer which has arrived at Kiel is believed to have a cargo of guns and war material on board for Balmaceda. The vessel, President Pinto, which arrived at Kiel yesterday, showed this to be the case, and it is generally understood the German authorities at Kiel are acting under special instructions from the Imperial Government and will insist upon the new treaty of the port of Kiel being strictly observed by the English steamship and the Chilean war vessel. In other words, it will prevent the English steamship from transferring the cargo to the Pinto while the vessels are in German waters.

Zirns Refuses $200,000 for His Mine.

Special to the Journal.
CARSON, August 26.—Fifteen sacks of gold bearing ore were brought in from Zirns mine from Pine Nut to-day guarded by armed messengers. Each sack will average $1,000. A gentleman from San Francisco, representing an Italian syndicate, offered Schultz, Zirns mining partner, $200,000, to be deposited in sixty days, for the mine, which was refused. Oliver Roberts, Charles Colburn and A. S. Barney incorporated the Mountain Valley View and Mascot under one brand. The capital stock is $100,000. Another installment arrived from Red Bluff to inspect the hill back of Carson.

An Old Man Murdered.

Special to the Journal.
WILLOWS, Cal., August 26.—The body of an old German known as Friz was found in an old mill near Junction in this county yesterday. His skull had been crushed in by a blow and the left ear almost cut off, and an eye knocked out. John LeRoy and Joe Carr, a nephew, were arrested for the murder. The examination will take place Monday.

A Prohibition Convention.

HARRISBURG, Pa., August 26.—The Prohibition State Convention opened here this morning with 403 delegates present. H. T. Ames was selected as permanent Chairman. In his speech he denounced the ballot reform law because it discriminated against the Prohibition party, and also denounced the liquor traffic. A committee on resolutions was then appointed.

A Battle at Quintero.

Special to the Journal.
PARIS, August 26.—The Chilean legation last night received a dispatch saying a heavy battle was fought at Quintero to-day. The Congressionals sustained heavy losses, being placed between two fires. A decisive battle is expected soon. Balmaceda's army occupies an advantageous position.

Corn and Hay Crops Rotting.

Special to the Journal.
DUBLIN, August 26.—A violent thunder storm to-day passed over Charville, County Cork. The rain is the heaviest seen in that district during the past thirty years. The corn and hay crops are rotting in the fields and it is feared that potatoes will prove a failure.

Union Veterans.

CLEVELAND, O., August 26.—At today's session of the Union a number of resolutions adopted, include one favoring the service pension bill to approach nearly to one in Germany. S. Yoder of the Department of the Potomac was chosen Commander-in-Chief.

NEW YORK, August 26.—Alfred H. Hildick, importer, widely known here, committed suicide to-day by taking Paris green.

THE CHILIAN SITUATION.

A decisive battle is being fought between the Congressionals and Balmaceda's forces in Chili. The Government troops outnumber the Insurgents, but the latter make up in valor what they lack in numbers. It is believed the result of the battle will determine the struggle which has almost devastated some of the Chilean provinces. As the reports are colored to suit the party in control of the telegraph lines, it may be some days before reliable news can be had.

The sympathies of Americans are with the Congressionals, as the butcheries committed by order of Balmaceda proves him to be as cruel and despotic as the King of Dahomey.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. ELLA A. The Association of Railway Employees is being organized all through the western States for the purpose of securing votes for men who are opposed to monopolies and the oppression of capital. OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES.

The Only Living American Poet of Boston Culture Since Lowell's Death.

The most genial singer of America now stands alone. Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes is an old man. He, like Lowell, was born in Cambridge, Mass., and is now 82 years old. He was graduated from Harvard College in 1829, entered upon the study of the law, which he soon abandoned for medicine, and in 1832 went to Europe to pursue his studies, passing several years in attendance on the hospitals of Paris and other large cities. He received the degree of M. D. in 1836, in 1838 was chosen Professor of anatomy and physiology in Dartmouth College, and in 1847 was elected to fill the same chair in the medical college of Harvard University. Early in his college life he attracted attention as a poet. In 1836 he read before the Phi Beta Kappa Society "Poetry: A Metrical Essay," which was published in the first collected edition of his poems (Boston, 1836). Dr.

Holmes is, however, best known by his series of articles first published in the Atlantic Monthly under the title of "The Autocrat at the Breakfast Table," which constituted one of the most brilliant events in contemporary American literature. They were followed by "The Professor at the Breakfast Table" and the Poet at the Breakfast Table. As a writer of songs and lyrics, both humorous and serious, Dr. Holmes stands in the first rank; many of his best poems are of this class and have been written for social and festive occasions, at which they have been recited or sung by the poet himself. A few years ago he visited England, where he met with a most brilliant and cordial reception from the great literary men of that country. He wrote a novel, "Elsie Venner," and is also the author of a number of scientific works.

THE PACIFIC P. & P. CO.

A New Incorporation That Means Business.

The Pacific Packing & Provision Company filed articles of incorporation in the office of the County Clerk yesterday. The incorporators are C. Derby, R. A. Harris and W. A. Wood. The capital stock is $500,000, divided into five thousand shares of $100 each. The principal place of business is Reno, Nevada.

The object of the association is to buy real estate, erect slaughter yards, and pack and can meats. The company means business, and no doubt when once started will supply the State of Nevada with such meats as are now brought by rail from Kansas City, St. Louis and Chicago. The enterprise is one that ought to succeed, and it will be advantageous to the people of Nevada as well as profitable to the company.

The Humboldt Races

The Silver State says: The speed programme of Humboldt Agricultural District No. 3 is published to-day. There will be four days' racing—October 5, 6, 7 and 8—and though the purses are not large, some spirited racing contests will doubtless be witnessed. In addition to these attractions, $1,000 will be given in premiums for the best displays of agricultural products, mechanical and stock exhibits, etc., and altogether the fair this Fall should be the best one held in the county for a number of years.

THE STATE FAIR.

The Colt Stakes Well Filled.
Saturday was the day for the closing of the two and three-year-old stakes for the Nevada State Fair, to be held September 21st to the 26th. The following were the nominations made, viz:

No. 2.—Running stake, two-year-olds, 1/2 mile; $150 added. Damison Bros. names ch. f. Eva D.; W. F. Smith names ch. g. Zaldivar; W. H. Laughlin names b. c. Encore; O. Appleby names ch. f. Esparanza; Theo. Winters names ch. f. Valleria.

No. 15.—Running stake, two-year-olds, 3/4 of a mile; $200 added. Dennison Bros. names ch. c. Borealis; W. F. Smith names ch. g. Zaldivar; W. H. Laughlin names b. c. Encore; Theo. Winters names ch. f. Valleria.

Race No. 7.—Running stake for three-year-olds, one and one-sixteenth miles, $250 added. W. B. Sanborn names b. f. Mamie C.; G. H. Kennedy names b. f. Acclaim; B. C. Holly names ch. c. Terry.

A Fine Establishment.

The finest display in the line of wines, liquors, Manitou mineral water and ginger champagne, Schmidt & Co.'s sarsaparilla and iron and orange wine, imported ports, sherries, clarets, Kentucky and rye whiskeys, including the celebrated Grays and Hermitage ryes, McKenna and Old Private Stock Bourbon whiskeys, Martell and Hennessy's cognacs, imported cordials of all kinds, also California wines, Zinfandel, Burgundy, angelica, etc., in fact a complete assortment of all of the very finest goods on the market can be seen in the show window of H. J. Thyges. He carries and handles the Sierra bottled beer in large quantities, supplying the trade and families. All the goods he sells are guaranteed as represented and sold at San Francisco prices. His motto is quick sales and living profit. He carries the largest and most complete stock of wines, liquors, cordials, etc., in the State, and defies competition in prices. Give him a call and be convinced when trading with him that you pay for just what you get, and get just what you pay for. All goods delivered in town free of charge. Mr. Thyges has also in connection with his establishment a first class bar and elegant card rooms. Between the hours of 11 and 2 o'clock daily you will always find a nice, neat lunch spread in San Francisco style. In fact he conducts the finest establishment of the kind east of San Francisco and west of Ogden City, and is a credit to a town the size of Reno.

A Law Point Decided.

William Killen who was fined $50 by Justice Linn for misdemeanor paid $30 and refused to pay any more. Justice Linn committed him for ten days to satisfy the remainder of the judgment. The defendant sued out a writ of habeas corpus, returnable before Judge Cheney, on the ground that the commitment was illegal, having been issued several weeks subsequent to the rendition of the judgment. Judge Cheney held that the judgment having been rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction the time of issuing the commitment was immaterial so long as it was done within the legal limitation and the judgment was unsatisfied, and therefore ordered the defendant remanded.

Yesterday at noon while R. C. Leeper was at dinner some person gained entrance to his harness shop through a window and rifled the money drawer. Fortunately there was but five or six dollars in the till and the robber took it all but $1 25, which he must have dropped on the floor in his hurried exit.
